

Service to the Libraries and the University Chronology

2008

- Presentations:
 - Librarians and Faculty Learning Communities at UGA (University of Georgia Libraries; PDRC Panel Discussion Member) Discussion of experiences of being a member of Faculty Learning Communities.
- Workshops/Classes
 - Presentations that Rock! Advanced Powerpoint (University of Georgia Libraries PDRC workshop) Two hour workshop on extending Powerpoint to include video and real time websites, among other features. <http://www.robinfay.net/site/powerpoint/>
- Committee work highlights:
 - Committee on Nominations & Elections (CN&E) member, assisted in running elections and gathering nominations for Libraries' faculty and served on the Access Services Search Committee.
 - Continuing Chair of the Emerging Technologies Group for the Libraries, charged with exploring new technologies as used by libraries, especially as relates to the website, making recommendations as needed.
 - Elected to the Promotions Committee for the term of 2008-July 2010 (Librarian III)
 - Continue as Web Editor for the Cataloging Department and member of WAG (Web Advisory Group). Additionally continue to serve as Blog Admin for the News & Events.
 - Serve on campus wide groups including Dweeps (UGA Web Editors) and the Faculty Learning Community for Emerging Technologies in Higher Education.
 -

2009

- Facilitator:
 - Bibliographic Data on the Semantic Web (University of Georgia Libraries Cataloging Group; Discussion Facilitator) Discussion on Martha Yee's article on bibliographic data, RDA, and the Semantic Web.
 - Web 2.0+ and Professional Networking: Are You LinkedIn? (University of Georgia Libraries; Coordinator/Facilitator) Panel discussion on social networking as used by University of Georgia faculty across campus, focusing on professional networking purposes. Presentation also podcast.
- Presentations:
 - Blog basics (University of Georgia Web Editors aka Dweeps) Lunch and Learn about various blog softwares and blog options, including an overview of Wordpress and the UGA Libraries' experience.
 - Facebook, Privacy, and Your Digital Identity (University of Georgia Web Editors aka Dweeps; 2009; encore 2010) Lunch and Learn/presentation about privacy, digital identity, and social media, focusing on Facebook.
 - Metadata 101 (University of Georgia, Emerging Technologies Faculty Learning Community) Presentation of an overview of metadata as used on the web and by library communities.
 - Simplify Your Inbox: Making RSS Work For You (University of Georgia Libraries; Panel Discussion, 2009) Discussion panel on RSS including using Google Reader and reducing email by using RSS feeds.

- Guest Lecture/Speaking engagements:
 - Open Systems, Closed Systems (University of Georgia/Freshman Seminar) Presentation and discussion on the social media, opensource, community source, closed systems, and open systems.
 - Semantic Web and the Social Web (University of Georgia/Master of Internet Technology Program; Gwinnett Campus) Presentation and discussion on the metadata, the semantic web and its assumptions, as contrasted and compared with user generated content from social media sites. <http://www.slideshare.net/robinfay/semantic-web-and-the-social-web>
- Workshops/Classes
 - Drupal 101 (UGADG: University of Georgia Drupal Group) Lunch and Learn / presentation/training on the introduction to Drupal; end result was the formation of the UGA Drupal Group. <http://www.robinfay.net/site/content/drupal/>
- Committee work highlights:
 - Continuing Chair of the Emerging Technologies Group for the Libraries, charged with exploring new technologies as used by libraries, especially as relates to the website, making recommendations as needed.
 - As a member of the Promotions Committee, reviewed dossiers and made recommendations.
 - Continue as Web Editor for the Cataloging Department and member of WAG (Web Advisory Group). Additionally continue to serve as Blog Admin for the News & Events.
 - Elected to the Faculty Advisory Board (FAB) as General Member.
 - Serve on campus wide groups including Dweebs (UGA Web Editors) and the Faculty Learning Community for Shift to Visual (visual learning/media). Chair Radio Overflow Faculty Screening Committee for Peabody Awards.

2010

- Presentations:
 - Illusion: Insights Into Visual Design Elements (Emerging Technologies Faculty Learning Community with Deborah Stanley) Presentation on webdesign, color, and the elements of web design and how they can impact user experience.
- Guest Lectures/Speaking engagements:
 - Digicred: Do You Have It? (University of Georgia, Journalism and Mass Communication, Guest Lecturer) Discussion on social and professional networking, social media, branding, and digital identity.
- Workshops/Classes
 - Blogging & Tweeting (University of Georgia Libraries, 10 Weeks to a 2.0 You program with Amy Watts, 2010) Workshop on blogging and tweeting including hands on activities and homework.
 - Flash, Bam, Alakazam! Photos in a 2.0 World (University of Georgia Libraries, 10 Weeks to a 2.0 You program) Workshop on online image editors, basic image editing and tips for good photography. Included hands on activities and homework.
 - Image Editing: It's not all about Photoshop (Dweebs/Training and Development) Lunch and Learn presentation about online image editors including video.
- Committee highlights:
 - Asset Awards Committee; Asset Awards Exhibit Committee, Member: Coordinate the exhibit display including creating ballots, voting box, assisting with promotional materials, and helping with reception.

- Continue to serve as a member of FAB (Faculty Advisor Board), WAG, and as Chair of the Emerging Technologies Group.
- Library Learning Group Member: Investigate social media training, develop and participate in an internal training program for library staff (10 Weeks to a 2.0 You) to build awareness of social media, especially as used within the UGA Libraries.
- Serve on campus wide groups including Dweebs (UGA Web Editors) and the Faculty Learning Community for Storytelling.